The Christian and the Law – Part 9:

Freedom from the Condemning Mosaic Law in Christ

Galatian 2:19-21; 3:13

Big Idea: As Christians in the New Covenant, we are entirely free from the condemning Mosaic Old Covenant law

- I. The Mosaic law cannot save, only faith in the gospel can.
- II. The Mosaic law was only a temporary tool for condemnation.
- III. The Mosaic law was fulfilled by Jesus Christ on our behalf
 - A. Rejoice that he took for us the curse of death for law-breaking (Romans 7:1-6)

Questions to consider:

1. Why was it necessary for Jesus Christ to fulfill the law in order for us to have forgiveness?
2. Why are both parts of Christ's fulfilling the law, in his death and in his life, so important?
3. How does it make you feel to know the scale of what Christ has done for your salvation?
4. What in this study today did you find particularly helpful or encouraging?
